City Sail

City Sail provides students in 6th-12th grade the opportunity to learn to sail a 24-foot boat, to become a better leader and team player, and to make new friends. Students spend a week as a small crew learning to steer, navigate, handle sails, and calculate speed on 24' sailboats. They also learn about the Hudson River and its marine environment. Most importantly they learn about themselves. Many schools offer physical education credit for completing this program.
